

We are pleased to announce the third North Wales Print Fair to be held at MOSTYN in Llandudno, North Wales on Saturday 7th March 2020.

The North Wales Print Fair, organised in partnership with The Regional Print Centre, will be a fantastic opportunity for printmakers from all over the UK to present work for sale in the fabulous spaces of Wales' foremost contemporary gallery and visual arts centre.

The gallery's shop and retail spaces, including one dedicated to printmakers, has become known as the 'go to' place in North Wales to buy work by contemporary makers at affordable prices.

North Wales PRINT FAIR

Venue: MOSTYN, 12 Vaughan Street, Llandudno, LL30 1AB

Date: 7th March 2020

Open to public: 10.30am - 5pm

Admission to public: Free

About Regional Print Centre

The Regional Print Centre is an artist focused organisation based at the print studio in Coleg Cambria, Wrexham and offers a variety of creative printmaking opportunities which includes open access, workshops, courses, and demonstrations.

The Regional Print Centre is a joint project funded by Coleg Cambria in Wrexham and the Arts Council of Wales.

About MOSTYN

MOSTYN presents international art and culture of our time, activating people's lives through exhibitions, cultural programmes and commercial activities. Situated in the coastal town of Llandudno, it is Wales' foremost contemporary gallery and visual arts centre, serving as a place to form and share new perspectives through artistic/curatorial practice and audience engagement. MOSTYN is part of the Plus TATE network of UK arts organisations.

MOSTYN receives financial support from the Arts Council of Wales and Conwy County Borough Council Art Service. Mostyn Gallery Ltd is a registered charity trading as MOSTYN.

Stallholder information:Stalls:

£75 per table.

1x trestle table [2" x 6"] and 1x chair will be supplied.

Wall space is optional and subject to availability. Spaces will be allocated at the discretion of MOSTYN. Please note in your application if you would prefer to have walls or not.

[You will need to supply your own tools [no power tools] and nails/screws. Please note that you are responsible for your own health and safety whilst hanging and taking down works. MOSTYN cannot accept responsibility for any injury or damage caused to yourself or anyone else by your installation/artwork.]

Stallholders must set up their stall themselves. Stallholders must bring their own table coverings, props and displays.

Tables will be available to set up from 7.30am. Drop off/loading access is limited at the rear and front of the building.

Trading will begin at 10.30am and will cease at 5pm and the fair will close to the public. Trading must not cease before 5pm.

Stalls must be set up within the allocated parameters, and must not cause any obstruction to members of the public or other stallholders. It is also the responsibility of the stallholders to ensure that their stall is kept tidy and free from any trip hazards, litter etc.

Any free-standing stall furniture [e.g. stands, units, racks etc] must be adequately installed and if necessary weighted.

No electricity or generators will be provided, nor can any be used during the fair.

At the end of the fair stallholders are responsible for removal of stalls and stall furniture/displays, property and litter. Stalls must be cleared by 6.30pm.

The nearest carpark is Llandudno Train Station which is a five-minute walk from the gallery. Please note this is a pay and display carpark.

Stallholders will benefit from:

An association with the Regional Print Centre and presence at MOSTYN, Wales' foremost contemporary art gallery and visual art centre. MOSTYN is also part of the Plus TATE network of UK art organisations.

Press release to our press and wider networks.

Extensive coverage on our social media [combined reach of 17,500 followers across our platforms].

Digital copy of the poster/leaflet [physical copies available to collect from the venue].

Listing on our website.

Free wi-fi throughout the building. Fully accessible venue.

Terms:

Applications are invited from individual printmakers, designers, print studios, groups, collectives and art material suppliers.

All work must be original and by the printmaker/group members. Using traditional or contemporary print and print related methods.

Applications will be reviewed on a number of criteria including quality, consistency of work, pricing and variety. Feedback cannot be given on any unsuccessful applications.

No commission will be charged on sales, you be responsible for dealing with any sales. You are also responsible for your own tax and national insurance contributions.

Stallholders must provide evidence of their own public liability insurance - a copy of which must be given beforehand to MOSTYN. Stallholders must also agree to follow and meet all health and safety requirements.

Successful applicants are required to pay fees in advance and will receive their invoice along with their information pack. Stall fees are non-refundable.

No refunds will be given under any circumstances. Any stallholders who cancel cannot pass their stall onto a third party.

MOSTYN cannot be held responsible for any loss/or damage to any property or stock of those exhibiting at the fair.

Stallholders are liable for all claims arising from their goods and services.

MOSTYN reserves the right to request the removal or any content or stall, stall furniture that can deemed offensive, inappropriate or dangerous.

To apply:

Please download the application form from our website www.mostyn.org/print

Please email your completed application form along with the following:

- 4x Good high-res / quality images of your work/merchandise [Optional – 1x Image of previous stall]
- Please attach a brief artist statement/description of your print technique[s]
- Images can be sent via wetransfer, dropbox or similar.
- Email to barry@mostyn.org

Please submit your completed application form and requested documentation via email by 5pm on Tuesday 14th January 2020. Applications without supporting images will not be processed.

Successful applicants will be notified by Wednesday 15th January 2020.

Feedback cannot be given on any unsuccessful applications.

We will only hold your data and contact you with regards to the North Wales Print Fair 2020 at MOSTYN. After the event contact details and information will be stored securely for 6 years for audit purposes. We will only contact you with regards to the North Wales Print Fair 2020.

We will not share your details with any third party.

MOSTYN